

Communion Notice

The Dunlaps, Indiana, congregation will hold a communion Monday evenings Aug. 14, 1899. All who can come and enjoy the service with us. A. R. BEMENDERFER.

Announcement

This is to let you know that the conference of Michigan will be held in the Bethel congregation, Cass county, seven miles northeast of Cassapolis to commence Sept. 26th, Tuesday, with a ministerial institute and will continue until we are thru. Now come all who can; especially do we invite brethren ministers from northern Indiana to come. You have a little sister over here in Michigan who needs your help.

WALTER CLARK.

Wauseon, O.

We have once more been permitted to meet with our dear brothers and sisters of the Bryan class whom we shall never forget for their kindness shown toward us. Also had the pleasure of listening to two soul-cheering sermons delivered by our pastor, Rev. Grisso, and returned to our home after services Sunday evening with many happy thoughts. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

MARY STUTSMAN.

Our Dead

ROBINSON.—Sylvanus J., son of Brother and Sister Robinson of Gravelton, Ind., died July 29, 1899, aged 2 years, 1 month and 9 days. He was a bright and beautiful child, but he has gone to join the angel band. Funeral service by the pastor from I Cor. 13: 12.

C. H. MARKS.

BURGE.—On the 30th ult., after nearly a month of intense suffering from typhoid fever, Inez A. Burge was called across the mystical river of death. Only 13 years, 4 months and 3 days was she permitted to remain on earth, but during her short stay she had succeeded in drawing about her a host of friends which was manifested by the little tokens of love which all seemed solicitous to bestow. From the home sunshine has fled. Over the church a gloom is cast. Inez was an earnest and active worker in the S. S. and K. C., and ever a loyal friend to the Brethren cause. Thru our tears we can only say, It is well. The Lord gave and he has a right to claim his own. Services were conducted at the Brethren church by Rev. J. M. Fox, assisted by Rev. John Flora, of the Old Order Brethren. The consoling words, "She is not dead, but sleepeth," were used as a basis for the discourse. Interment in the Maple Lawn cemetery.

MAUDE A. WINGARD.

Flora, Ind.

HAMMON—Catharine Hammon was born August 29th 1821, near Millersburg, Holmes county, Ohio, died in Buckeye City, Ohio, August 1, 1899, aged 77 years, 11 months and 3 days. She was united in marriage to George Hammon in the year 1850. To them were born two children, one son and one daughter, both of which survive her. She lived with her daughter, now Sister Ross, wife of Eld. Isaac Ross, pastor of the Middlebranch and Fairview churches for a number of years and died at their home. She was confirmed in the Lutheran church at the age of 16 years, but was a member of the Brethren church for the last 13 years, and died in the hope of a blessed immortality. She was a good Christian woman and had many friends who mourn her departure. She was followed to her last resting place by a large concourse of people. Funeral services by the writer.
